

English Language Learners Family Literacy Program

2015

School Level Outcomes

Program Overview

Schools Served

Harms
Munger
Maybury Lighthouse

84 Families served in Southwest Detroit

160.9

Average number of hours parents participated at each school.

13,519

Total hours of parents engaged in children's school during the school year.

Goals of Participation

83.6% of parents' primary reason for staying in the family literacy program was to become "a better teacher of my child"

100% of parents' primary learning goal was to improve their English language.

Student Outcomes

Children with parents who completed 150 program hours were more than 2x as likely to have an attendance rate of 90%

Students in program (n=66) completed 369 more days of school than comparison students.

7.4% gain in reading level for students in program, compared to 1.8% gain for comparison students.

5.6% increase in reading proficiency for students in program compared with comparison students.

Parental Engagement

Parents Increased Engagement with Children's School/Education through Technology

23% Parents Access Educational Websites

41% Use Technology with Children

51% Parents Access School's Web Page

73% Emailed with Child's Teacher

94.1%
Percent of parents who attended a parent conference or met with children's teacher informally.

50%
Percent of parents volunteer in children's classroom.

LIVE UNITED

United Way
for Southeastern Michigan

 Southwest Solutions

 National Center for Families Learning
familieslearning.org